

Camp Rules

Authority

1. All adults are in authority and must be respected and obeyed.
2. All campers must abide by camp rules and show respect for authority or they'll be sent home at their own expense.

Dormitories

1. Campers must be inside their dorms and lights must be turned out by designated times. No one is to be outside the dorms after lights out without permission.
2. Boys are not permitted to linger around the girls dorms, and girls are not permitted to linger around the boys dorms.
3. Each church is required to sweep the floor, make up beds, carry out trash and straighten the area in which they are staying each day before morning services at 8:30.
4. Churches using the community bathrooms are responsible for cleaning those bathrooms and showers.
5. Government regulations forbid the use of fire inside dormitories. This means no candles, lighters, fireworks or potential fire-causing devices.

Dress

Girls: The acceptable wearing of apparel for girls includes culottes. Culottes are not baggy pants or shorts, but are made from a skirt pattern and should have a pleat in the front and a pleat in the back. Culottes should extend to below the knee. For a culottes pattern:
